Electoral Board Meeting

Pursuant to Va. Code § 24.2-671, the Chesterfield County Electoral Board will convene a meeting November 5, 2024, at 7:30 p.m. to canvass returns and ascertain the results of the General and Special Elections held on Tuesday, November 5, 2024. This meeting will be held at The Registrar's Office, 9848 Lori Road, 23832 and will recess once the unofficial results are reported for all Precincts. Discussions regarding general election matters may also occur. The meeting will reconvene Wednesday, November 6, at 10:00 a.m. and will be held at The Central Library, 7051 Lucy Corr Blvd., 23832.

In addition, pursuant to Va. Code § 24.2-653.01, each person having submitted a provisional vote has the right to be present November 6, 2024, at 12:00 p.m. for a closed session meeting with the Electoral Board, where voters may speak to their qualifications for their provisional ballot to be counted. This closed session will be held at The Central Library, 7051 Lucy Corr Blvd., 23832, and will recess once all provisional voters have been heard. The open session will convene Friday, November 8, at 10:00 a.m. to determine the validity of all the provisional ballots offered in the election. Other than appropriate staff and legal counsel of the Electoral Board, attendance shall be permitted for the persons whose provisional votes are being considered with their legal counsel, if present, as well as one authorized representative of each political party or independent candidate. Authorized representatives must be qualified voters in the Commonwealth of Virginia.
