PUBLIC NOTICE

April 17, 2026

Electoral Board Meeting to Canvass the unofficial results and adjudicate Provisional Ballots cast.

Pursuant to Va. Code § 24.2-671, the Chesterfield County Electoral Board will convene a meeting Tuesday, April 21, 2026, at 7:00 p.m. to canvass returns and ascertain the results of the Special Election held on that date. This meeting will be held at the Registrar's Office, 9848 Lori Road, 23832, and will be recessed once the unofficial results are reported for all Precincts and By-Mail. Discussions regarding general election matters may also occur. The meeting will reconvene on Wednesday, April 22, 2026, at 9:00 a.m. and will be held at the Central Library, 7051 Lucy Corr Blvd., 23832.

In addition, pursuant to Va. Code § 24.2-653.01, each person having submitted a provisional vote has the right to be present Wednesday, April 22, 2026, at 12:00 p.m. for a limited attendance meeting with the Electoral Board, where voters may speak to their qualifications for their provisional ballot to be counted. This limited attendance session will be held at the Central Library, 7051 Lucy Corr Blvd., 23832 and will be recessed once all provisional voters have been heard.

Attendance at this session is limited to appropriate staff and legal counsel of the Electoral Board, the provisional voters whose ballots are being considered (and their legal counsel, if present), and one authorized representative of each political party or independent candidate. Authorized representatives must be qualified voters in the Commonwealth of Virginia. The Provisional Meeting will reconvene Monday, April 27, at 9:00 a.m. to determine the validity of all the provisional ballots offered in the election. The meeting will be held at the Registrar's Office, 9848 Lori Rd., 23832 and will be recessed once the unofficial results are reported for the Provisional Precinct. The Electoral Board will reconvene the meeting to certify and sign the Abstract of Votes.
